Campus Life: Mixture of Hustle, Hassle

Encinal's campus offered many facilities for students to enjoy and utilize. For the dreamers and thinkers, our front lawn provided a place for solitude or meditation. Athletic prowess found its release during lunchtime on the numerous basketball courts and in touch football on the lawns. The scholars buried their noses in Miss Pageau's reference books or calculated their trigonometry homework in the library. Big appetites were sometimes appeased three times a day in our cafeteria. For those who preferred to "brown bag," comfortable eating facilities were also available.

One wit gave the best description of campus life at Encinal: "A Mixture of hustle and hassle."

Yells, Games, Rallies, Fun: Cheerleading

Besides leading yells at games, Fall and Spring cheerleaders divided their time in many other ways.

Before football and basketball games, pep rallies took up part of their lunch hours. Preparing for Spirit Assemblies required much after school time.

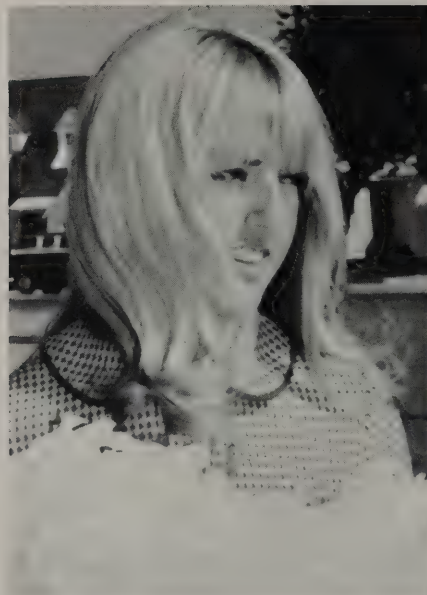

This year, Fall cheerleaders took part in a parade which advertised the Sr. play, while Spring cheerleaders performed for Chipman School along with the Pom Pon girls.

Pom pons, flags, marching and music more than filled the lives of this year's Pom Pon girls and Flag Twirlers. Their many hours of practice with the band was clearly demonstrated during their half-time performances at home games.

Assisting the cheerleaders at noon pep rallies, the Pom Pon girls helped promote spirit for games. In addition to participating in the Operation Understanding exchange assembly at A.H.S., the Pom Pon girls made several command performance appearances at our own assemblies.

Queen Crowned: Highlight of Big Game Week

After much hair tearing, helmet throwing and nail biting, the harried, overworked football team finally came up with this year's five Homecoming Queen candidates. Jeni San Nicolas, Karen Dykstra, Sharon Harris, Kathy Ravey, and Becky Marceline were presented to the student body the week before the Alameda game, giving the boys of the student body seven days in which to choose the one to be their queen.

Thursday's exchange assembly with Alameda included the results of the voting. Becky Marceline was crowned by Mr. Brandes as Queen for the 1969 football season.

Mayor Terry La Croix also crowned Becky and presented her court to the assembled partisan rooters.

PRINCESSES KATHY RAVEY and Sharon Harris, along with Queen Becky, pose for a portrait during half-time activities.

THE FINISHING TOUCH is added as Mayor Terry La Croix crowns Becky Marceline. The football fans wildly applaude the court of beautiful girls: Karen Dykstra, Kathy Ravey, Sharon Harris and Jeni San Nicolas.

QUEEN BECKY RECEIVES congratulations from her proud mother while Mayor La Croix, Mr. Brandes, and Jeni San Nicolas look on happily.

Senior Contest, Block E Game: Campus Fun

Campus fun this year included the newly conceived Mascot contest and the Block E — Flabby-Five game.

Senior-sponsored Mascot contest gave boys under five feet tall, the chance to be recognized. Mascot votes were sold for a penny each.

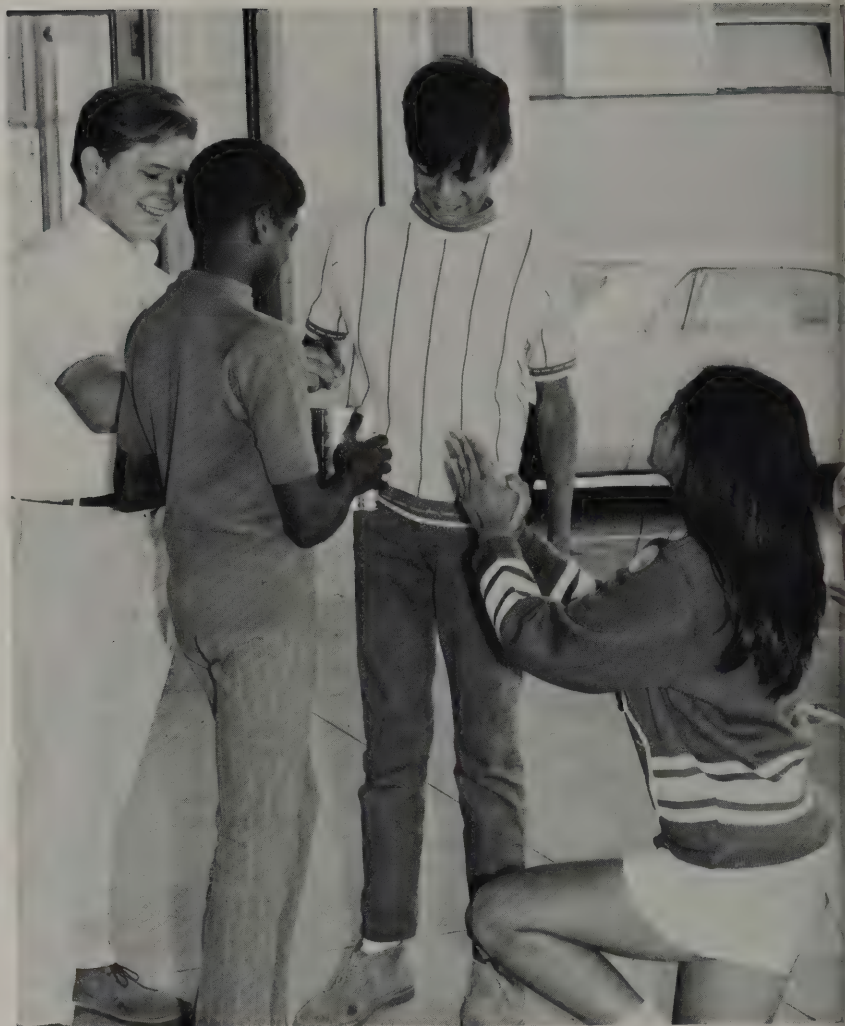

During Christmas week, Santa made his grand entrance during the Block E — Flabby-Five clash. As the crowd roared with laughter and delight the fragile Block E men pitted their strength against the over-weight faculty.

As tradition goes, the Flabby-Five luckily coasted by the Block E, winning by a mere 10 points.

WITH HER CANDIDATE Jeff Galena, sponsor, Debbie Antonali, receives votes from Karen Dykstra, Francisco Sablan, and Joanne Tajima.

BEFORE SHE BUYS her 100 votes, Karen Dressman teases sponsors Nancy Conroy, Kathy Ravey, Becky Marceline and candidate Russell Zimbleman.

WINNING MASCOT MIKE Willis, approaches Anthony Medina and Gary De Long for votes as sponsor Jeni San Nicolas, pleadingly assists him.

LEONARD McDANIEL SCORES again for the Block E, as Flabby Five defensive man, Mr. Read attempts to foil his shot.

TO THE DELIGHT and amazement of Toni Dumont, Marcia Stewart and the crowd, Santa arrives during half-time at the Block E game.

THERE TO CHEER the Flabby Five to victory were Mrs. De La Vergne, Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. Reaves and Mrs. McKee.

Senior Class Play; Successful Event, Three Night Show

"Goodbye My Fancy" titled this year's annual Senior play. The three-act comedy was written by Fay Kanin and directed by Mr. John Cotter.

The story involved the experience of a congresswoman (Agatha Reed, portrayed by Francine Fiszczuk) who returned to her alma mater to be awarded with an honorary degree. There her student picadillos caught up with her.

To boost publicity and ticket sales, a parade was held down Webster Street which included the cast, E.H.S. band, and enthusiastic Seniors.

The three night performances was a successful money-making event for the Senior class. The cast included:

Spirit Week, Pep Rallies: Fun, Games

Much enthusiasm and (rah rah!) spirit was shown by students during this year's Spirit Week, particularly in class competition.

The Frosh look-alike contest featured such notables as Phyllis Diller and (aaaaah) Tarzan. Another Freshman event was an extremely loud noon-time rally, which helped them win the Spirit Week Crown.

Seniors sold spirit chains throughout the week; they were hung in the main hall. The winner of the event was determined by the length of the chain. The Seniors also sponsored an ugly legs contest, in which the participating males modeled their legs on the stage during the Spirit assembly.

"Graceful, talented" male Juniors cheered their hearts out at a noon-time rally. Other Junior events included a sponge throw and pie toss.

To conclude the week's festivities, an exchange assembly was held between Encinal High and rival Alameda High School.

Annual Clash: Gridiron Fury Excites Fans

With distorted faces, flying limbs, and strained voices, spectators actively displayed their spirit during the Alameda-Encinal clash.

To get away from the mass hysteria and gridiron combat a bit of glamour was added. Promenading onto the field during half-time, came Becky Marceline, this year's Homecoming Queen, along with her royal court.

Not to forget the most important event of the afternoon, the Jets played outstanding ball, emphasizing a powerful defense, by containing the Northern California champions, Alameda, to a very limited passing offense.

RALPHIE, JET'S MASCOT, appears confused as to where the action is.

ASSISTANT HEAD, VICKIE Smith encourages the crowd with much vivaciousness.

Student Talent Provides Assemblies

Various students offered their talents this year for the talent show which was presented to the student body in November. Talented dancers and musicians performed.

The Drama, Modern Dance, and music classes presented the Annual Christmas Assembly.

Under the direction of Mrs. Larsen, Drama students performed in a song and dance number.

The modern dance class did their version of "Drummer Boy" and the "Toy Shop" scene.

The choir and orchestra added much Christmas spirit as carols were sung and played.

As a finale to the program, Miss Wann led the audience in various Christmas songs.

City, School Aid Student Development

Encinal students spent their on and off campus hours making use of two resources: school and community.

Alameda's many parks provided recreational facilities as well as ample grounds for picnicking and just plain relaxing.

Both school and community boasted of well-stocked libraries where students spent some time studying, writing letters they were soon to mail; or waiting to go to lunch with their friends.

Success Reigns Over Student Council's Extra Efforts

Togetherness, struggles, and effort were the key words that led to another successful year for Encinal.

Encinal and Alameda student body officers worked closely to provide a joint dance for the teenagers of Alameda.

Many student council meetings were spent in debate, concerning the nation's wide problem of pollution. Eventually a number of concerned students formed an Ecology Club.

Old and new student body officers met with the editors of Times Star, in an effort to improve the publicity situation of Encinal High School. Their meeting was successful.

Constant Ventures By Students Show Stirring Results

The Student Assembly Planning Committee and the Student Faculty worked hand in hand to try to prepare interesting student body meetings. The committee submitted suggestions to Student Faculty for approval and organization. During the next Student Faculty meeting the assembly agenda was formed into an enjoyable meeting for EHS students.

The Encinal Ecology Club carried petitions and actively supported a proposition to ban the bay bridge span as it would damage our area.

Attempt Control of "Hyper-Active Students"

The Fall BOC Organization carried out their duties under a false sense of values. They gave tickets and shouted warnings only to show their own self importance, or to play a joke on a friend. They were able once again to carry out the traditional role that they had earned in the past, that of a farce. The BOC's finally realized that this organization was losing it's worth. In the Spring they chose the new members with seriousness and concern. Again each BOC took an oath to uphold the rules and regulations of the school. This time the BOC's fulfilled their oath. Justice and respect once more reigned.

THE HEROS OF EHS come to the rescue of "pussy cat" Ron Erny, who climbed the tree, but couldn't get down.

Quiet Hours of Diligent Work Produces For E.H.S., A Truly Vintage Year

This school year at Encinal High School has shown a great growth in our school spirit. This growth has been characterized by a renewed participation and support of school activities; a greater interest and accomplishment in student government; friendliness and good fellowship in the classrooms, in the halls, in student meetings, and at athletic events. Most of all, it is characterized by a pride in our school on the part of every one of us.

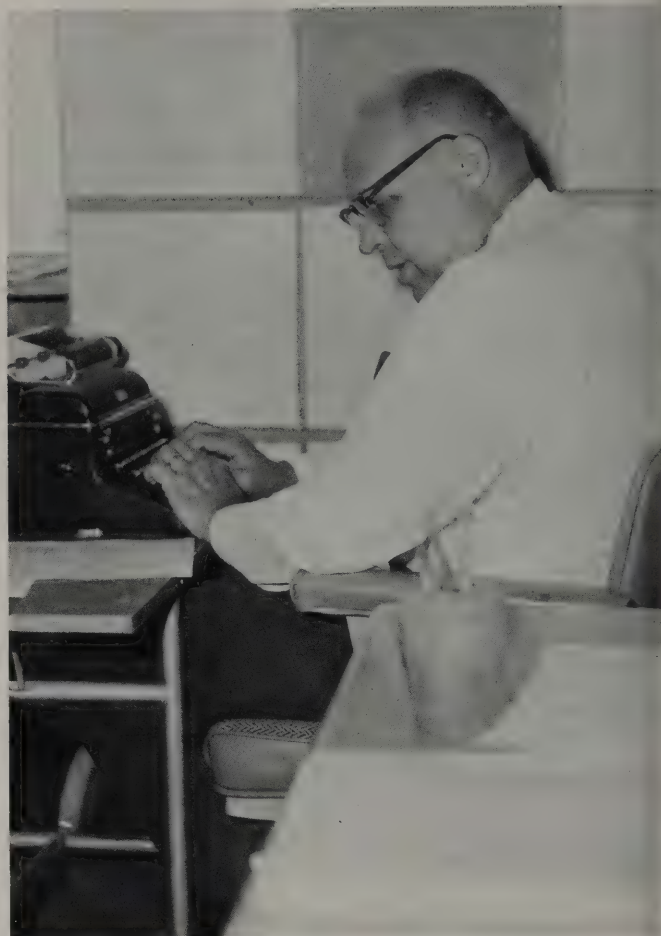

School spirit on the part of a student body and faculty is a characteristic that makes an outstanding school. We do have a very fine school and can point with pride to our accomplishments.

Each year we have come to expect a bigger and better yearbook. This year is no exception. The 1970 HORIZON is a treasure-house of high school memories, friendships, and accomplishments, wherein members of our school have recorded their experiences in print and pictures.

It is with pride that I express thanks, on behalf of our entire school membership, to Karen Dreesman, editor; to Rick Fenstermaker, co-editor; to members of the editorial and business staffs; to Mr. Arthur Roke, editorial advisor; and to Mrs. Josephine Holmes, business advisor — for their many hours of hard work and devoted effort.

Administration Goal: Build Mutual Respect

Vice-Principals Mr. Hanna and Miss Shockey had a very touchy job. They had to adjust themselves to suit each problem that arose as far as their students were concerned. Acting as administrators they antagonized some students; a regrettable situation but inevitable. On the other hand, many of the student's interests were promoted by the administrations. Generally students and administrators tried to understand one another in order to gain mutual respect.

Counselors' Gentle Persuasion Encourages

Our counselors basic concern was help. It came in many forms through understanding, disciplining, preparing, and encouraging student efforts.

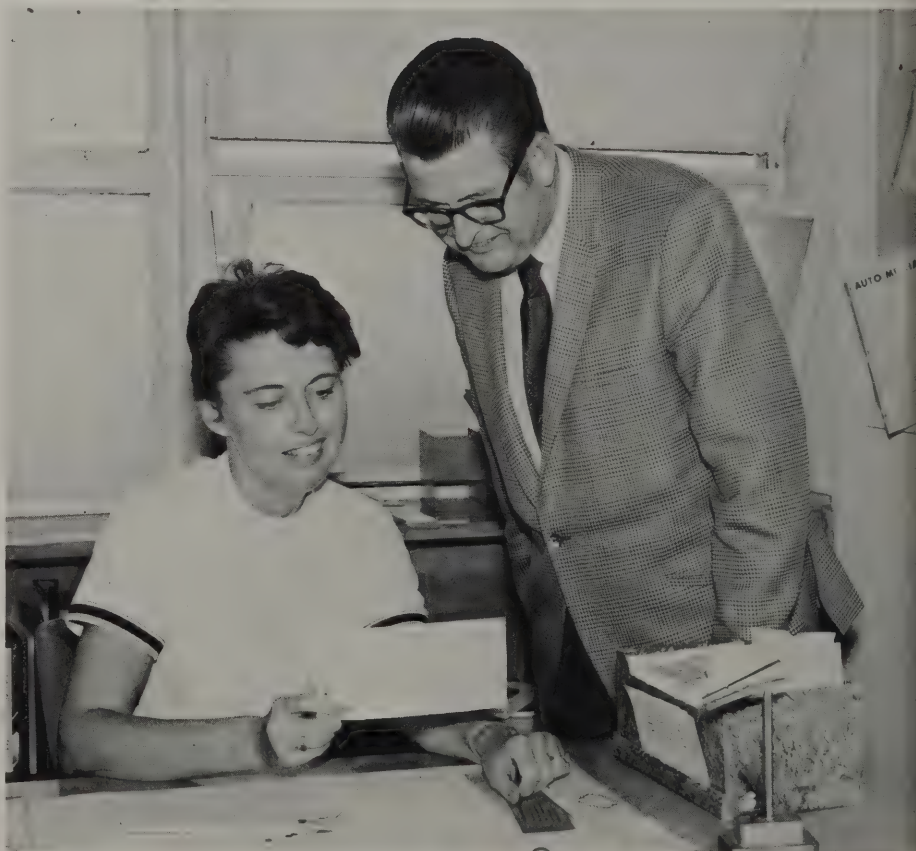

Mr. Croll, the Freshman class counselor, had to understand freshman needs. A freshman student might have felt lost and forgotten when he entered high school, but Mr. Croll reassured and comforted the littlest underclassman.

Mr. Yeoman, the Sophomore class counselor, had the difficult task of curbing the unruly spirit of the class of '72. Tactful discipline was used to make sure the excitable Soph's didn't get to big for their britches.

Mrs. King, the Junior class counselor, helped prepare the class of '71 for their Senior year. She prepared them and watched over them to prevent them from losing out on a happy future by giving up at this critical time in high school life.

Mr. Bay, the Senior class counselor, gave the Seniors his last ounce of encouragement and confidence so they would continue with their education and fulfill their life-long ambitions.

From Paper Work To Wounds, Classified

Serving Encinal and enabling it to run smoothly were: secretaries, a nurse, cafeteria workers, and custodians.

Aid Both School and Community

Under the leadership of Key club president Scott Stratton and "S" club president Roxanne Bernardo, the two service clubs were kept busy throughout the school year.

With the assistance of Alameda residents, Key Club members washed cars, sold Halloween insurance, collected canned foods for needy families, and sponsored the KYA Oneders-Faculty basketball game held on January 21.

The profits of "S" club's annual paperdrive and carwash went to the football team for oranges to provide vitamin C during half-time. The members gave a Thanksgiving party for the special class at Mastick Elementary School. Later they invited "S" Alumnae to a reunion dinner.

Both clubs joined forces and ushered the Senior and All-School plays. Closing out the year was their annual pot-luck dinner; that evening was filled with laughter and entertainment.

Encinal, You

Music rang everyone's chimes this year. Encinal's music groups under the supervision of Cameron Hillyer, fearless leader of Pep Band, Chi Mu and Marching Band, provided live entertainment at assemblies and sport events. New members volunteered their time and talents and as a result increased the activities of Chi Mu and Pep Band.

Chi Mu's candy sale held on the week of Halloween; and they managed to raise much "moolah" which went towards awards, ensemble fees, and a musical scholarship at Camp Cazaders for a lucky student.

Pep Band's activities were purely voluntary. These "peperoo's" provided musical entertainment at the Senior Play, Swim meets, and basketball games.

Marching Band, plus flag twirlers and letter girls performed during half-time at every football game. Bandsmen claimed the highlights of their year included their performances at the Annual Veteran's Day Parade and leading the Senior Play Parade through the heart of Alameda's West End business district.

Athletic Clubs Hold Super Sucker

The tradition of initiation of new members in Girls' Athletic Association was the first order of business this year. With a December candy sale, the girls used the profits for a "decent picnic" at the end of the school year and for gymnastic equipment. In holiday spirit, a Christmas party was held.

Purpose for G.A.A. was active participation in any choice of competitive games. Sports offered were archery, bowling, swimming, and volleyball. Dedicated to the field of athletics, the girls were more than useful, for they served as timers and judges at swimming and track meets. Playdays were also part of the program. Outstanding ability was rewarded by points that went towards earning a block "E."

The Men's Block "E" goals this year were outstanding achievement in sports and helping to better the athletic program at Encinal. Joining forces with the basketball team, Block "E" held a super sucker sale, the profits bought an athletic department projector and film.

The annual Block "E" activity was a basketball game with faculty "Flabby Five" with proceeds of this Christmas event going to the American Field Service program. With the assistance of Key Block "E" sponsored the KYA Oneders-Faculty game.

Honor Clubs Combine Brain Power, Fun

Students with a higher academic standing were offered membership in two honor clubs; CSF, California Scholarship Federation, and Sigma Epsilon.

In spite of the required grade of A- set by CSF, many students qualified. Club activities included an annual candy sale, tutoring E.H.S. students, and a tour of Cal State campus in Hayward.

A little more lenient, on their grade point requirement, Sigma Epsilon included students with a B average. The members sponsored an ice-skating party, a pickle and ice-cream sale and a successful art festival.

Are the Foreign Language Clubs Propaganda Plots?

Behind the true blue walls of Encinal, lurked foreign organizations, sucker sales, banquets, pinata's, and such. We pause to wonder, who gave the inter-language Christmas parties behind closed doors? Behind the language curtain we probed, only to find a Latin Club whose activities included a sucker sale and the annual Latin Club banquet. The French Club, a motley looking crew, began its activities with a bake sale, then joined the Spaniards and the Romans for a Christmas party. Foreign Correspondence seeped into Encinal, we found the recipient to be the Spanish Club, with their innocent candy sales and parties.

New members joined these clubs, money raising activities were sponsored, parties were held, and yet we wonder.

Pep Club, Wing Tips: Sky High Activities

Encinal's good guys, the Pep Club, decked out in blue and white, did it again by plunging the student body into another spirited year. Pep Club included pompon girls, cheerleaders, and a herd of other eager girls as well as five boys. A few of their activities were showering the school with pompons, jet power buttons, and slogan ribbon sales. Besides their annual candy sale, they also sold true blue and white striped T-shirts to wear to the games. With faithful cries of, "Go Jets," and their many pep rallies, Pep Club proved to be the most spirited club in the school.

Model U.N. wasn't the only club that went up, up, and away this year as membership in Wing Tips became another way to fly. Wing Tips, under the leadership of Mr. George Reeves, a former Navy pilot, really flew the friendly skies as the future flyers activities included visiting the Alameda Naval Air Station for simulated flying experience and their first flight of the year from Hayward Airport to Napa, California.

Washington D.C. In '71 as UN Group Wins Again

Encinal's Model United Nations, under the direction of Mr. Haberberger and Mr. Winberg, proved to be one of the most exciting clubs in the school. An increasing interest in world affairs led the Model UN to better their efforts. The first dance of the year was sponsored by the Model UN to raise money for transportation to conventions. At the Donkey Basketball game, which proved to be one of the more hilarious highlights of the year, money came from all directions.

It was up, up, and away for the third consecutive year to Washington D.C. where our Model UN represented South Africa and took sixth place nationally among the one-hundred and fifty schools represented, then left with an invitation to return next year. Meanwhile, the rest of the Model UNers were representing the U.S.S.R. at a three day convention in Berkeley where they also placed among the top ten.

Greater Insights Into Tomorrow Guides Future Teachers, Homemakers

Homemaking is an art few students are interested in, outside the realm of their homes. At Encinal these "few" composed an industrious band of girls under the direction of Mrs. Tackach. What the future holds for Future Homemakers of America was apparent; but for the present, money making ran side by side with homemaking. Besides a candy sale, followed by a cupcake sale, they sponsored a sale at the flea market to send delegates to a state conference. Profits were also contributed to the American Field Service and the Encinal's Model UN. To promote home economics and an understanding of family relationship, they held their annual Parents Night Dinner.

Even think one of your friends might someday cross the lines to become a teacher? Perhaps they belong to the Future Teachers of America. Sponsored by the Alameda Education Association, FTA'ers broadened their teaching abilities by tutoring at Paden School, helping after school, and aiding Encinal teachers. Meeting twice a month, they planned their fall activities, which included a candy sale and a Christmas party. With the coming of new officers were new activities: a trip to San Francisco University and the Alameda County Conference of Future Teachers of America were also on the agenda, also an end-of-the-year club picnic.

Red Cross, BSU Do Their Things On EHS Campus

Encinal had more soul this year when the B.S.U. came together under the direction of Black History teacher, Mr. Caver. The B.S.U. did their own thing and proved that black doesn't turn you back. One of their things was sponsoring the "Young, Gifted, and Black," also the "Soulettes" who performed at Encinal's talent show. Another of their many activities was a carwash, followed by a school banner sale to promote school spirit. The highlights of the year was, February 14 through February 25, the week during which the school was encouraged to support Black History. Between Black Art displays and the B.S.U. picnic, the soulful B.S.U. proved that this year's events were truly their thing.

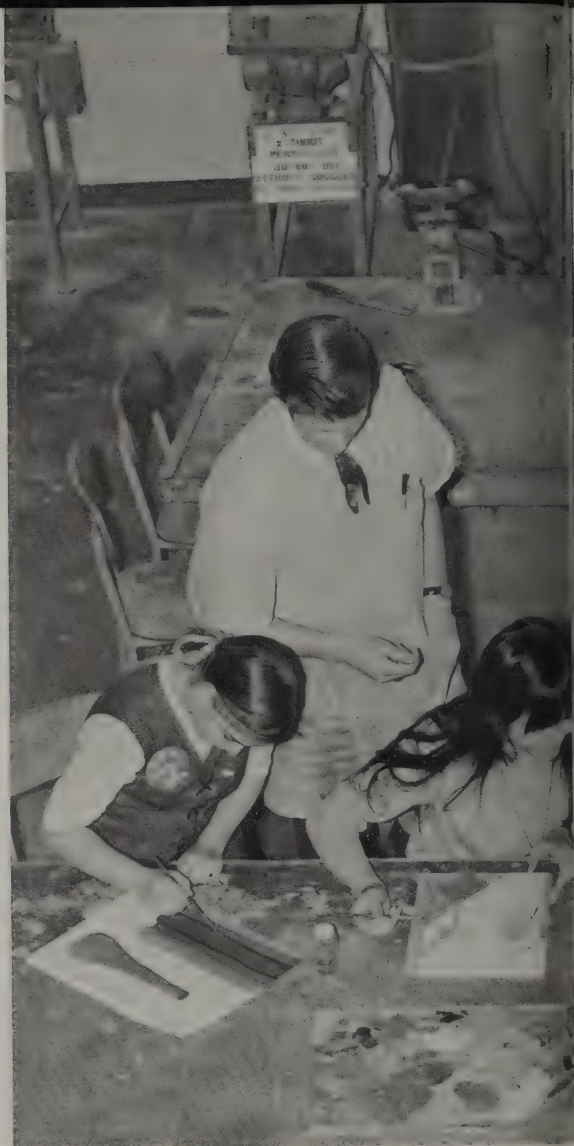

The Red Cross thing happened to be lending a helping hand. First on the agenda was a rummage sale and a carwash to send money to the survivors of Hurricane Camille. Among other activities the Red Crossers visited the patients at Oaknoll Hospital, then held a candy sale. Money was also raised for a scholarship for a senior who plans on nursing.

Under the direction of Mr. Ruark, the members of Art Club produced many new works of art with paints, metal, ceramics, and the pottery wheel. A successful Ghiradelli candy sale, trips to the Oakland and San Francisco Art Museums, and a dinner were the major activities of the club.

Pen, a creative writing club, consisted of a group of young talented writers and poets. Under the supervision of Mrs. Soll and Mr. Rebensdorf, they learned to express themselves in writing. Meeting semi-monthly at the homes of members, they shared their writings and their host's refreshments. Their talents were displayed in the Pen assembly.

Under the direction of a new coaching staff, the scrappy and determined Encinal High School football team fought the 1969 football campaign. The JETS ended the rugged A.C.A.L. season with a record of 1 win and 8 defeats.

Their lone victory came against the equally scrappy DeAnza Dons. In this game the varsity gridiron offensive unit exploded for 20 points and the JET defense rallied allowing the Dons only 8 points.

At the annual awards banquet, held November 24, this year, the team's most outstanding players were announced. Tom Gilchrist, junior tackle was the most valuable player. Leonard McDaniel received the Mr. Hustle award and Jake Childs was awarded the most improved player trophy. A new innovation this year was the honoring of the Alameda game team captains, John Janke and Leonard McDaniel, with special walnut plaques.

Varsity, J. V., Frosh Records: Interchangable

The Junior Varsity football squad, under the direction of Mr. Conner, experienced a disappointing season, plagued with losses. The Junior Varsity gridders retained the spirit that symbolized most of Encinal's athletic endeavor.

Some of the outstanding players on the J. V. team were: quarterback, Bob Leach; halfback, Paul Rufus, splitend, James Littlejohn; and linebacker, Mark Pryor.

Gaining experience in the skills and techniques of the fine art of football was the goal of the Frosh-Soph team this year. Under the direction of coaches, Dick Gorman, Jim Kruse, and Max Wilde, the yearlings wound up the season with one win and eight losses.

Dormant Jets Erupt As Spirit, Hustle, and Victories Increase

This year's varsity basketball team proved to be as exciting as the one of a year ago. Coached by Dave Johns, the JETS established themselves as a constant threat in A.C.A.L. competition.

Although the JETS lacked experience as only two lettermen returned this year they still managed to develop a well balanced team.

In the backcourt were Gary Wayne and Eric Shelton both noted for their excellent ball handling and hustle. Flanking them at the forward positions were Ron Schaefer an unstoppable offensive threat and Graig Simpson who possessed a tremendous driving ability. At center for the JETS was 6 foot 4 inch sophomore Albert DeWitt who proved to be one of the team's most valuable and essential players.

J.V.'s Beat Albany Frosh-Soph Team Trounces Bancroft

Coach Bill Caver's Junior Varsity basketball squad displayed excellent techniques and skills throughout a long season. The young, all sophomore, team played against older and more experienced teams. Their first victory came against the strong Albany five during the exhibition season.

Junior Varsity standouts included James Littlejohn, Bob Leach, Mike Bartell, and Albert Pamiroyan. The team developed a never-give-up attitude and continuous hustle throughout the '69 season.

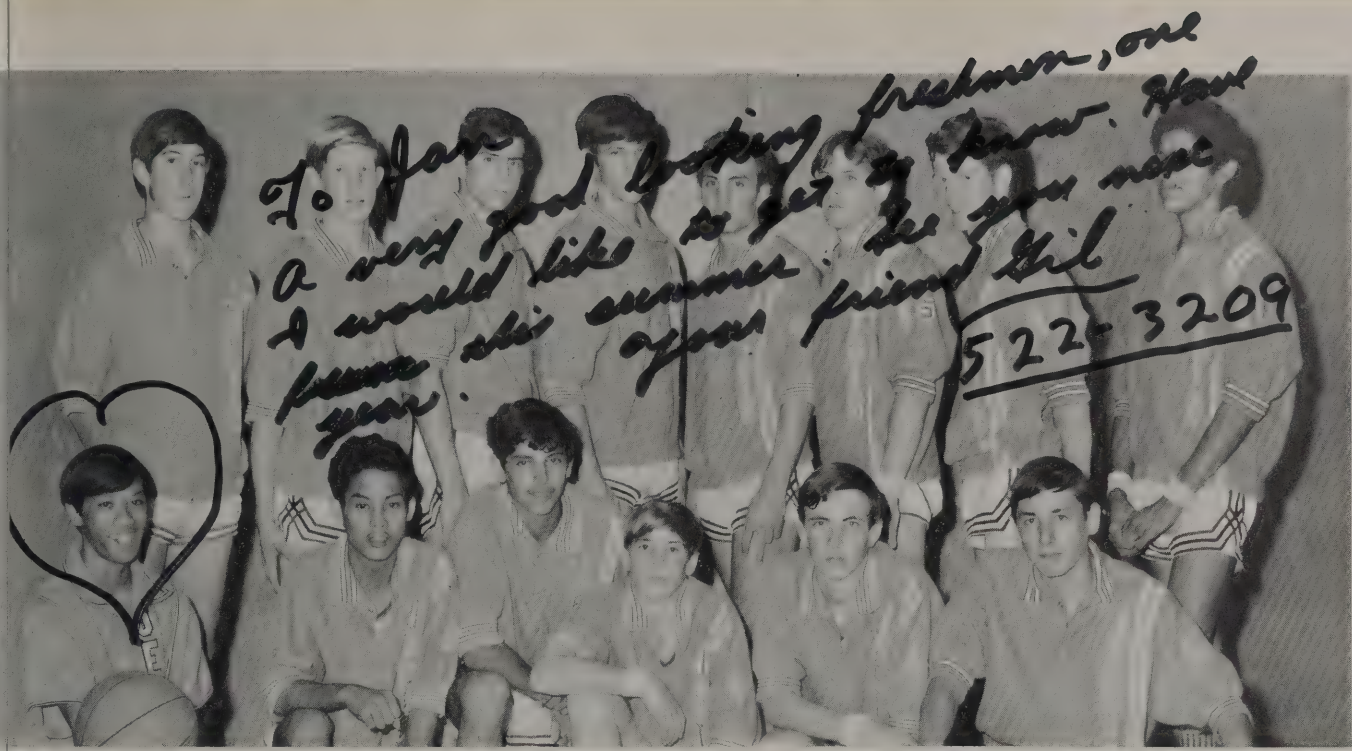

Max Wilde coached the Frosh-Soph basketball squad; he stressed basic fundamentals and a fast-break offense. The team matured quickly enough to beat Bancroft by a score of 42-41. Lack of height affected the frosh-soph team a great deal but they were still able to rebound and apply the fast-break techniques to experience impressive victories in the A.C.A.L.

The golf and tennis teams were coached by Paul Foster. Golf, a relatively new sport at Encinal climbed in popularity among JET sportsmen. Outstanding golfers included: Jim Abraham, Jersey Coyne, Dan Marr, and Bob Crosby. The golf team attributed lots of practice as one of the main reasons for the JETS successes. Everyday after school the parmen used the Alameda Municipal Golf Course for a three hour practice session in preparation for their 20 match schedule.

Existing for only 6 years, tennis as a team effort, had enthusiastic and capable players. Under the guidance of Paul Foster, the JET'S 10 man team had a 16 meet schedule this year. The returning lettermen that helped the varsity team were: Dan Marr, Mike Marchello, and Raul Quesada.

Consisting only of freshmen and sophomores, the Girls' Swim Team finished with a winning season. Led by captains Katie Keltner and Cathy Conner, under the guidance of their Coach, Mrs. Snyder, the girls had a 4 win and 2 lost record. The biggest challenge came against cross-town Alameda High; even though the girls made an all out effort, they lost by a margin of 13 points. Attempting to win against their rival a second time, the girls lost by the score of 69-49. The easiest victory was the defeat of Berkeley High by a score of 35-10. Encinal rounded off the season by dominating De Valle twice. An outstanding time, 1:01.1 was clocked in the 100 medley relay at the first De Valle meet; the swimmers who set the mark were: Kathy Davis, Dana Bonnin, Katie Keltner, and Susan MacLean. As in any other sport, the girls look forward to next year.

With four lettermen returning, Randy Molina, Lerek Baculpo, Roy Moger, and Bruce Kenyon, the Encinal Swim Team showed great promise for a successful season. The Jet's, hoped that new arrivals would take the place of last year's graduating swimmers. In an effort to equal last season's standing in the tough ACAL League, a second year Coach Jon Mederios began practice early for upcoming meets.

Spirit, Enthusiasm Inspire Jet Runners

"Stronger than last year, every runner ran with the enthusiasm necessary to build a winning team, and as a result, the cross-country team showed the spirit Encinal has lacked in the past and gained some victories Encinal had missed in the past," commented John Matula, head coach.

The DosSantos brothers, Bob and John were the only returning lettermen while Tony Gordinier, Nolan Shew, and Claude Akana made up the rest of the varsity team.

This year, Encinal came home with 5 wins and 10 losses. Highlights of the season were: Encinal defeated their arch-rival St. Joseph, 26-30, in the first meet of the season; the Jets finished second in the city meet; and Tony Gordinier broke the Kennedy High School three mile course record with a time of 17:08. Tony, who finished second in the A.C.A.L. frosh-soph competition, was the only runner who represented Encinal at the North Coast Section I, where he placed fourth. He then went on to the North Coast finals where he placed twenty-sixth.

Jet Grapplers: Undefeated ACAL Champions

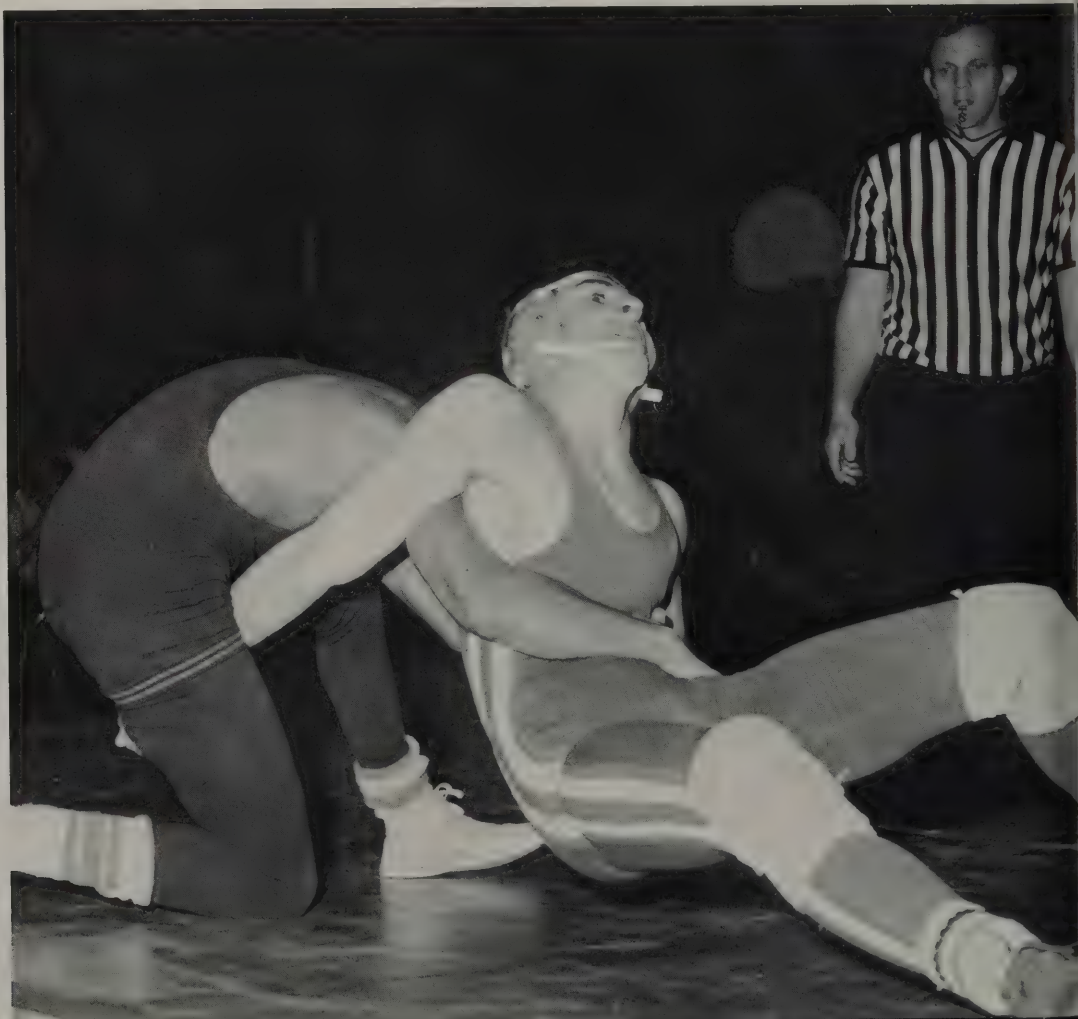

Berkeley High School was the scene of triumph as the JETS varsity wrestling team again took the ACAL championship on Friday, February 6th. The matmen, coached by Dick Gorman, captured the first place trophy and defeated last year's champions by ten points. Individual winners included champion and "outstanding wrestler" Roger Gerundo in the 123-pound weight class; Tom Gilchrist in the 178-pound weight class and Bob Moss in the unlimited class. Champion Dave Heeder who wrestled in the 127-pound weight class also went undefeated for all league meets.

This year the JETS built a respectable record of 7 wins and no losses to capture the ACAL round robin standings. In the Pacific Invitational Tournament, the JETS finished in sixth place. Even our first year wrestlers were given the chance to compete in the ACAL Novice Tournament and they brought home the first place trophy.

The JV's, coached by Barry Conner, also had a productive year with a compiled record of 4 wins and 2 losses. Some outstanding wrestlers were: champion Bob Jepsen in the 130-pound weight class; champion Raul Quesada in the 136-pound weight class and champion Chris Childs in the 141-pound weight class.

For the first time, Senior government classes have had the opportunity to observe actual court proceedings. To prepare the students, the entire court system and procedure received detailed attention in government classes. National courts, state courts, local courts as well as legal terminology and practice were drummed into Senior heads. Most students were fascinated by the day in court and particularly impressed by the discussions on law and order with the presiding judge at the close of the day of hearings.

Heated discussions on current world affairs were instigated daily by Mr. Gorman. These discussions gave students a chance to express their views on major issues. Some students discovered Mr. Haberberger's detailed discussions on the advancement of Asiatic cultures were fascinating but never easy.

Poetry, Semantics: New Course

Poetry, Semantics and Ethnic Literature were only a few of the new English courses available at Encinal this year. These classes were combinations of Juniors and Seniors. Formal essays and term papers became easier to write for the students who took Creative Writing. A semester later their many efforts finally paid off.

The growing list of new teachers at Encinal included Mr. Lewis and Mr. Wright who brought with them new, creative and exciting ideas in teaching.

Linguistic Talents Expand Using Our Modern Facilities

Frequent use of the modern facilities and newly revised books, foreign language students were able to comprehend different languages with greater ease. One other aspect of language included the printing of posters and programs for our many club and school activities. The special classes instructed by Mr. Luebert and Mr. Ellis did this job excellently.

Other than foreign languages, another linguistic talent was practiced by the beginning and advanced students. Mrs. Larsen enthusiastically encouraged and exercised dramatic and vocal talents.

The various experiments allowed students to learn more about human, amphibious, and plant life functions, while Mabel, the uncomplaining skeleton provided a true illustration of human structure. The advanced math courses: Geometry, Algebra III and Math Analysis dealt with difficult mathematical problems. Mrs. Hegeman and Mr. Wilde were unrelenting in the attempts to teach their students various equations and theories. The students were able to learn rapidly with the new-up-to-date books that were available to classes.

Learning Basic Skills Provides Background for Future Careers

Students had the opportunity to choose a prospective field from the various vocational classes offered this year. Basic skills were learned and applied by each student working on his own project. Hard work on the part of the staff's combined with a desire to please the student body and to win national acclaim had the editors and all working long hours into the night and during their lunch hours. The slave-driving editors cracked down many times when they believed the layouts, pictures and copy were not up to par but the members of the staff tired and disgusted with their own works continued on with dogged determination and achieved final copy results.

New Courses, Plus Training Equals Jobs

Various up-to-date techniques offered at E.H.S. provided students who are planning a career in business, a first hand experience in their prospective fields. One new class, Distributive Education, found jobs for qualified students and the experience in class work allowed them to readily understand and do their work competently. The constant drills by teachers gradually increased the accuracy of the student's work in the business machine, typing and shorthand classes.

Physical Fitness Plus Co-ordination; Goal of ROTC and PE

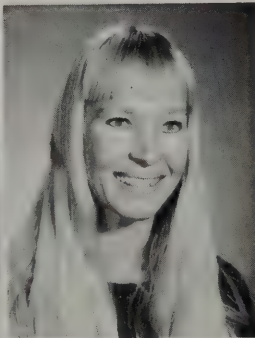

The physical education and R.O.T.C. classes strove to build physical fitness and co-ordination in every student through the many activities offered to them. Endurance tests were given at the beginning and middle of the year. The synchronized performances by our Drill Team and Color Guard won Encinal honors at the annual Veteran's Day Parade. Individual awards were captured by girls on our year-old gymnastics team.

Seniors Begin School Year Raising Funds For Future Activities

The class of '70, one of the smallest classes Encinal has had, began the fall term of 1969 by sponsoring a football mascot contest. Throughout the year they continued raising funds for Senior activities: the Picnic, Banquet, and Ball. The traditional Spirit Week held each year has been won in the past by the Seniors; however this year they lost to the lowest underclassmen; the Freshmen! For the first time the Seniors staged a parade to advertise their play "Goodbye My Fancy." Our marching band led the way, with the Pom Pon girls and Cheerleaders carrying signs announcing the play. As graduation drew near, a rush of activities kept the Seniors busy. When the day finally came and they were handed their diplomas, the Seniors beamed with pride at their accomplishments.

Seniors Given Many Outstanding Awards For Achievements

From the time they entered Encinal as freshmen until they graduated June '12, the senior class of 1970 participated with enthusiasm in all activities. They sponsored car washes, cupcake sales, candy cane sales and X-mas tree sales. They were a highly honored class with many outstanding students. Awards were given to the students who showed ambition and the ability to work hard. The Merit Awards were given to the students who showed exceptional progress and achievement in their own special field. Those chosen were: Lillie James, Art; JoAnn Nunes, Music; Kathy Ravey, Modern Dance; Beth Hannon, Social Science; Becky Marceline, GAA; Lori Gilbo, English; Claude Akana, Math; Denise Roach, Business; Michael Rutan, Foreign Language; Dan McEachern, Industrial Arts; and Kevin Jew, Science. The DAR good citizen award went to Kathy Ravey. Representing Encinal this year at Boys' and Girls' State were Scott Stratton and Alicia King. Spending a week at Ashland, Oregon as Christian Athletes were Rick Fenstermaker and Dan Eastman.

SCOTT STRATTON AND Alicia King represented Encinal High at Boys' and Girls' State for the summer of 1969.

Under the guidance of their class sponsor Mrs. Snyder, the leadership of their fall and spring class officers, and the co-operation and interest of class members the Junior class succeeded in making the year an active and exciting one. Activities included a sucker sale, a swim party, a carwash, and a mistletoe sale during the Christmas season. During spirit week Juniors proved their school spirit by holding a sponge throwing contest and an ugly man contest. Juniors also sponsored boy cheerleaders who aroused spirit at the pep rally. The highlight of the year was the Junior Prom which was held in April. These events ended the Class of '71's last year as one of Encinal's lower classes.

Sophomores Sponsor Tricycle Race, Ugly

Ranked high in spirit, the class of '72 actively participated in both class and student body activities.

In the fall, the annual swim party renewed school friendships and class members planned future activities.

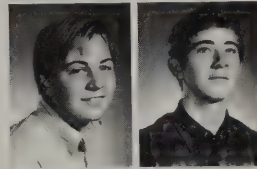

During Spirit Week, the Sophomores displayed their talented abilities in tricycle riding, and baby-bottle guzzling.

As always, the Soph Hop proved to be the big event of the year, it provided both fun and profit.

One-Third of Encinal's Total Enrollment Belong to Most Spirited Class: Freshman

With the opening of school the Freshman Class of '73' proved themselves to be one of the most active and spirited classes that ever entered the halls of Encinal. Making up one-third of the student body they were the largest Freshman class E.H.S. has had. They showed their spirit during the traditional "Spirit Week" by defeating the Seniors and winning the contest. During the year the class held a swim party to help raise funds for the following year and to get ready for their Soph Hop.

Congratulations to the class of '70 for making it through 12 years of formal education (misery). Good Luck in your coming years and my staff.

Karen Dreesman (1970 Editor)

Congratulations to Mr. Roke, Karen Dreesman, and the entire 1970 yearbook staff. Without them this glorious, tremendous, outstanding yearbook would not be possible. Also my special regards go to the 1970 wrestling team for such a great season.

Rick Fenstermaker (1970 Editor)

Being on the 1970 yearbook staff has taught me alot. Karen and Rick have set good examples for me to follow next year when I'm Editor of the 1971 HORIZON. I'll try real hard and do my best to keep up the tradition of having a great yearbook.

Ann Pedersen (1971 Editor)

Thanks go to Karen, Rick, and Ann for leaving me so much room to say what I have to say. Congratulations and best of luck to the Class of '70'. I'm really looking forward to being Editor of a fine yearbook next year.

Bob Dossantos (1971 Editor)

Stay sweet & don't let any boys make you cry, cause if they do its not worth it. Good luck always in all the years to come.
Good luck with Bill
he's a sweet guy.

Dear Jan.

Hi there. Well I'm glad I got to know you during P.E. Judo was fun while it lasted and softball was a riot. Team 5 must have been the clown squad. I hope you like where you move.

Love

Jan

You are a great person
and I am really going to miss you.
I hope you will write and maybe come back down to beautiful Alameda and visit the happy and beautiful life is for living so great summer to the fullest. Have a live your life to the fullest. Your friend Dana

Well Jan

How does it feel not to be a freshman anymore? Just think next year you won't have to sit in the bleachers. You still look as good as you did when I first met you 2 years ago.
Maybe a little better. Have a great summer and good luck in the future. "Brian Moger".

Jan

You are a very lovely girl
I'm glad I got to know you.
Rainbow your friend
you won't be alone
Good Luck
Love
Dana

Jan,
its been great knowing you this year through and I'm sorry to hear you're moving this July. I hope you'll write and hope we can get together and have some fun!

 Keep the faith, and good luck with Bill.

To Jan

Eye Jan, but not for long.
Summer will go by fast and I'll have another fun year with you. Just one thing remember me as corny!

Jan. you're a very sweet girl. I wish you weren't moving. If it hadn't been for Rainbows
 I wouldn't have met you.
 I hope you and Bill will care for ever. Be good and take care write if you have time + ill you about my problems with you know Jim Miller

stay that way, ok?
was neat, well...
English sort of! haw is sort of weird
see ya Pam M.

Jan,
I'm glad I got to know you this year. Hope to see you next year too. Have fun this summer, but don't go see the doctor too much ok?
Always,

Jan,
I didn't see you
much this year,
but I know it's your last year here.
I don't want to lose a good friend.
Have a good summer!

Kathy

UPSIDE DOWN FROM THICK
TO JAN (over the line)

Jan, I think you're really really good at everything you do. I hope you have fun, but do good luck!
Kathy

I'm really all out of things to say so I'll just wish you a great summer (with Bill of course).

Love,
Francesca Lennora
